“For the first time in Flagler County, this program is being made available with the hope that this partnership with local non-profit organizations will help build a more civic-minded and engaged community.”

- Kaiti Lenhart, Flagler County Supervisor of Elections

Bunnell, FL - Non-profit organizations in Flagler County have a unique opportunity to raise money for their cause with the Adopt-A-Precinct program.

In the State of Florida, all poll workers must be paid for their time and efforts at polling places on Election Day. With the Adopt-A-Precinct program, the Elections Office partners with non-profit organizations who recruit people who are willing to work and donate their wages to the organization. Voters are served by motivated and well-trained staff at the adopted precinct while everyone benefits from the work the nonprofit is doing for the community.

Non-profit organizations interested in the Adopt-A-Precinct program should stop by the Elections Office or call (386) 313-4170 for more information.
