Flagler County, Fla. – April 11, 2016:

Three additional forms of photo and signature identification are now acceptable at polling locations in Florida. Governor Rick Scott signed a bill passed this Legislative Session on April 1, 2016 which expands the current list of acceptable forms of identification that voters may use for picture and signature identification when voting at the polls on Election Day or during early voting.

1. Florida driver license.
2. Florida identification card issued by the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles.
3. United States passport.
4. Debit or credit card.
5. Military identification.
6. Student identification.
7. Retirement center identification.
8. Neighborhood association identification.
9. Public assistance identification.

Effective April 1, 2016:

10. Veteran health identification card issued by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs.
11. A license to carry a concealed weapon or firearm issued pursuant to s. 790.06.
12. Employee identification card issued by any branch, department, agency, or entity of the Federal Government, the state, a county, or a municipality.

“Photo and signature ID is always required at the polls in Florida. This law expands the list to include common sense options, which will help voters present an acceptable form of identification at the polling place.” - Kaiti Lenhart, Flagler County Supervisor of Elections
